INTRODUCTION

This is an Astro-Analysis based on the exact time, date, and place of birth calculated on the details supplied.

It is not intended to predict a budding mega-star or a future world leader - the objective is to provide some insights into the psyche of George to give everyone concerned a better chance of understanding, and hopefully helping this special child through the difficult growing times that they will face.

The astrological Chart is a little like a jigsaw puzzle without the benefit of a picture to follow. Some pieces are easy to recognize and they fit together beautifully. Another batch might fit well - but seem unrelated to the first "batch". Several straggly bits probably seem to belong to another world altogether, but that is the human psyche. The depths are immeasurable with many, many forms, faces, and dimensions.

Any Astrological chart will have seemingly several contradictions - again - just like human nature and our psychological make-up. But these apparent differences are all shades, shapes, and forms of the full picture. These "contradictions" should be seen as a balancing factor, knocking some of the edges off our sharp corners or, sharpening up the "softness" in the areas defined.

It should also be recognized that all of us have our own very personal lessons to learn in this life and these lessons unfold throughout the span of our entire life on earth. The learning experiences will not be systematic - they will be random episodes and experiences. Some interpretations of this Chart will give a glimpse of these very personal lessons that are an obvious part of this little one's character. Others may be so private or subtle that the child "learns" all by itself. And then there will be further lessons that will not have emerged or even seem significant yet.

It is hoped that the brief explanations throughout this analysis will help to explain the meanings and terminology of basic Astrology to give as much understanding as possible.

The two most valuable things that we can give to any child are our unconditional love and our time.

CONTENTS

The following passages give a comprehensive summary of the character traits of this child and a brief description of each section explains the specifics. It has been kept simple deliberately because, as mentioned in the introduction, Astrology is a complex subject, and the intention is to clarify, not confuse.

Included are:

The Sun/Moon sign combination

The Ascendant, when the birth time is known

The Sun, Moon and planets in the Signs and, when the birth time is known, the Houses

The major aspects

The Balance of the Elements and Modalities

The strongest Signs, Houses and Planets

Nothing is quite like having a Chart done on a "one-to-one" basis, but this enormous electronic age has opened the way for anyone who is interested to have a closer look at this ancient science and benefit from its wisdom.

Planets in Signs and Houses

Sun in Cancer, Moon in Libra

The "SUN SIGN" is the one part of the Astrological Chart that most people know. It is the inner core that drives and motivates us. It is our own true light. When we read and discuss our Sun signs we can easily recognize bits that fit, and maybe, question bits that do not seem to apply. The contrast noted is often related to the power of the other luminary - the Moon.

The Moon is our instinctive response. It reflects our earliest conditioning. The Moon governs our emotional responses, - our likes and dislikes - our innate sensitivities. Often the Moon sign is related to the maternal influence, or perhaps, the general home environment. Remember that this powerful response is inherent. Most of us try to improve on our own nurturing even when we feel that our childhood was wonderful. We want to adapt to the world we are living in now and want our kids to get the best out of "their world". But, even so, we instinctively revert to our own experiences without knowing why. That is how powerful the Moon influence is. We, in turn, treat our kids emotionally in the much the same way as we were treated when tiny. For this reason, the maternal influence is a part of these interpretations - as a natural influence that flows through the subconscious.

With this in mind one would think that all kids would have the same Moon sign as the maternal figure, but this is not necessarily so either. Life doesn't stand still, we are forever growing and each child can be very different. We "respond" accordingly.

Both the Sun and the Moon are the two major players. When in a very different sign this does complicate the projected personality. This can be an essential but difficult learning curve that can be confusing for all concerned. Our Sun can try so hard to shine only to feel over-shadowed by a powerful, or competitive, Moon. Some of us will need to learn to accept and understand our emotional conditioning and allow the Sun the right to burst through, combining both strengths in a positive way.

This combination attempts to tie together both of these very significant forces and come up with a sharper, more focused picture.

Some signs are very compatible - others compete.

Never underestimate the complexity of all the things of which we are made.

George has the Sun in Cancer and the Moon in Libra, which suggests both a romantically sensitive child and one who has powerful ambition. Here we have a combination of Air and Water. This is an effervescent and bubbly mix that is a lot of fun, a lot of soul and highly original. These kids can intoxicate like champagne or shock you like an involuntary sneeze. These kids are imaginative, expressive and compassionate. The mind is quite mystical and can seem rather airy-fairy. George will be an idealist rather than a practical realist, and will be theatrical and cryptic at times. The intellect and the subconscious work together in mysterious ways much of the time. So although George feels in tune with the world, others may fail to grasp the logic. For this reason these kids can feel quite isolated, thinking that no one really understands the profound thought patterns that filter through. These kids think in pictures - vivid pictures, which can be difficult to portray in words. They are tuned in to the past and the future - above and below - life and death. This is a complex child who recognizes abstract better than concrete. Understandably, George can feel misunderstood from time to time. But, the nature is gentle and kind. The aim is to do good works and rid the world of all the bad. These kids want to be loved and adored, but they also want to be free. They learn to exercise passive control by defining the line that separates the ego from the soul. George can seem moody and restless and hard to please at times.

The Cancerian Sun is shy, even withdrawn, but the Libran Moon will not risk getting left behind by being too bashful. The Cancerian Sun will be quite emotional, while the Libran Moon is objective, and quite capable of handling any situation beautifully. George will have a way of winning, but this is done with a quiet strength that will be "felt" rather than serious push and shove. It is all positive stuff, but this combination can be just a bit deceptive.

George will enjoy company and prefer being with friends, rather than being alone, but there will be a sense of privacy too. These kids hurt badly if they feel they have been rejected or overlooked, but being part of the crowd is almost a camouflage. They don't want to miss out, but they don't want to feel bogged down by commitment either. These kids like to be in control, and a part of this includes being able to make an exit if there is any discomfort. In many ways these kids cope better being part of an informal group rather than thrust in on a one-to-one basis. The outer show of confidence is not always as deep as it seems.

The sensitivity will run deep and George will find it almost impossible to stay put in any sort of hostile environment. A bad atmosphere does not suit the look or the temperament of this child. The panic button will activate in an instant and George will make a hasty exit. Often the true feelings frighten this child so rather than expose the vulnerability and bear witness to any upheaval the natural reaction is to retreat.

George has a fiery Leo Ascendant together with the Moon in the much calmer sign of Libra. Although George will thoroughly enjoy company and friends, there is an independent streak as well. These kids prefer not to feel totally committed. It is not beyond George to be selective in who is to be graced with this charming presence. There can be a quick eye and a quick mind that calculates the merits of choice where company is concerned. These kids can easily manipulate the best option for just that reason - it will make George look even better. But while George can pick and choose, George will find rejection very difficult to deal with. This child will want to win, will try to win, and definitely prefers to be on the "winning" team. But popularity is quite important too. The art of manipulation does come naturally but will not be used in a brutal way.

There should be strong leadership abilities because respect will be easily earned. Besides, the charm and diplomacy that is used here will be difficult for anyone to resist. George will seem to get what George wants most of the time in the nicest possible way.

The Libra Moon Mom is probably a romantic idealist, but one who feels as though life never quite comes up to the standard that is expected. George could well fill the gap for all the dreams that Mother dreamed and so become an adored and indulged child. There could be dissension in the family that needs to be dealt with from an early age. George could learn very early to play the role of the peacekeeper between parents or family members, and so quickly slip into the role of using charm and persuasion to establish normality. Essentially, trust can be put to the test very early in life, so these kids develop their own form of camouflage.
